

As a ham operator I am very concerned about the the potential for interference to my station from BPL. I urge the FCC to please take the utmost care in protecting the existing ham, shortwave, and other licensed frequencies from interference caused by BPL. There is already enough pollution on these bands.